

To the Bayle museum

Thank you so much for inviting us to your wonderful museum. I found out lots of new things that I never knew before.

The Bayle museum is jam-packed with history and facts from the olden days in Bridlington. The chairs and tables are worth thousands of pounds. I'm sure I saw a ghost outside the museum.

Jane King who is a prisoner in a cell, looks very miserable and only had a rat for company. She was in prison for being a wanted woman.

I found the scale models really interesting to look at. Also it was very interesting to see the old toys that children used to play with.

Overall I found out a lot about the history of Bridlington in the olden days.

Thanks again for letting us
visit.

Yours sincerely

Chloe
