

Dear the Bayle Museum,

Thank you for the fantastic visit to your interesting museum.

I was especially interested in your priceless Robert

Thompson table with chairs that cost up to 10,000 Pounds.

The Bayle Museum is 900 years old and used to be a gate house to the market.

Once somebody called the Bayle and said they had seen a ghost, in fact it was the core table. My favourite room was the top floor with all the old toys. I also enjoyed looking at the old medals; they were extremely fantastic!

To conclude, this museum is a little bit of a Gem. It's so bijou and small and should be visited by anyone who holidays in Bridlington.

Yours sincerely

Yasmine.
